

Camille Cosby Girl's Program

Say It Write

Writing and Self-Expression Conference

Did you know that you are unique? Writing is a great way to express the true you!
Join other girls from Boston at Judge Baker Children's Center for the
Say It Write conference to learn new and exciting ways to be heard!

Name _____ Age _____
Address _____
City _____ Zip _____
School/Group _____ Grade _____

Please choose your top 2 workshops in each category:

(The workshops are still being scheduled - we can't guarantee you will get the workshops you circle but we will try!)

Self-expression Workshops

- Sewing
- Canvas painting
- Mask making
- Paper doll creations
- Dancing ~ includes performing at awards luncheon

Writing Workshops

- Creative writing
- Journaling
- Fiction writing
- Poetry

Did you submit an essay to the "Walk a Mile in My Shoes" Essay Contest? YES / NO
Do you plan to stay for the luncheon? YES / NO

Please have a parent/guardian sign below: (MUST have signature to attend)

Parent/Guardian

Name (please print): _____ Signature: _____

Number to be reached in case of emergency _____

Who: Girls ages 11-14

What: Say It Write Conference

When: Monday, January 15, 2007 from 8:30AM-1:00PM

(You are also invited to attend the Camille Cosby "Walk a Mile in My Shoes" essay contest awards ceremony and luncheon from 1:00 - 2:30PM)

Where: Judge Baker Children's Center

53 Parker Hill Avenue, Boston (on Mission Hill)

How: Return this form to Olivenne Skinner

By Mail: Judge Baker Children's Center

53 Parker Hill Avenue, Boston MA 02120

By Fax: 617-232-7343

Questions? Call 617-278-4265 or email CCGP@jbcc.harvard.edu